FOREWORD

Peace holds a confusion of memories for each of its graduates—whether she be of the class of '89 or of '53—but those memories are strangely interfused with the lines from songs and strains from classic, semi-classic, and popular tunes. For music is an important part of the life of our school.

From the first day that we entered her doors, there has been music in our lives at Peace. The chapel is filled with echoes of voices of all Peace girls singing praises—with echoes of organ strains and Peace girls marching in recessional—with echoes of piano recitals, hesitant tunes or compositions extended in true art—with echoes of song, of organ, of piano—with girls singing—with music.

This year the Lotus offers a picture of life at Peace with music as its background—a reminder that music is happiness and that music is a memory of Peace.

DEDICATION

As we considered the theme for our annual this year, strains of soft music seemed to sing in the background. Music at Peace College has been, for generations of Peace Girls, personified in the blithe little lady who tripped with light step through the halls and into their hearts. And so the musical overtones, meaningful and persistent, prompted us to the dedication of our annual.

Because of our love and admiration for her and because of her love for music, which has become the theme of her life, we dedicate the LOTUS of 1953 to our dear Miss Lovie—

MISS LOVIE JONES

MISS MARY KIRKPATRICK

TRIBUTE

Every LOTUS published at Peace for the past 26 years is a concrete tribute to Miss Mary Kirkpatrick, who, through her undying interest, faithful service, and untiring effort, has encouraged those who lacked faith in their project, reprimanded those who were given to sloth, and prodded those who would have been procrastinators.

Miss Kirk, as we affectionately call her, through her graciousness in helping with the advising of the annual this year, as she has done for so many years before, has endeared herself to all who have worked with her; and her faithfulness in seeking advertisements, has made us proud of a job well-done. It is with a true feeling of gratitude to our business advisor that we pay special tribute to Miss Mary Kirkpatrick in our LOTUS of 1953.

ADMINISTRATION

DR. W. C. PRESSLY

Advice, consideration on the day of schedule sheets; a warm smile when we pass him in the hall; letters, conferences, friendliness in his office; a ray of understanding when he leads us in chapel services—that's our president, Dr. Pressly.

MISS MARGARET HALL

She came to us as an "old Peace girl" but remained as our "new Dean." Yet within this short time she has gained our respect and admiration through her sincere interest in us, and her diligent work for us. Through the years to come she will remain in our hearts as "our Dean."

CLASS POEM

We, the Class of fifty-three,
Raise our voices in praise of thee.
For the hours of study, of rest and play,
For the time of fellowship at the close of day,
For the kindness shown us when we were new,
Dear Peace, we extend a hearty "thank you"!
The time has come to bid you adieu
But, dear Peace, memories will linger forever of you.

CLASS HISTORY

Class of '53

Settling back in my seat, I felt our flying saucer dip toward the ground. As I looked to see whom Peggy Myers, my pilot, was saluting this time, I saw two of our classmates—El Nadal and Barbara Norris. They were en route to Canterbury. This brought up the subject of old school days as Peggy said, "I remember the first time I saw El; it was at the hall party that first night. The whole day had been filled with registering, buying books, unpacking, and meeting everyone. But that night we began to feel our homesickness and the fellowship of the party surely did help."

"I remember," I answered, "and the next day when the old girls came, we got to know them at the P. S. C. A. campus party."

"We selected Miss Golden as our Class Sponsor, and Raye King as our President. The biggest event of those first months to me," said Peggy, "was Rush Week. It was the one incident to make us feel important; and after weeks of debating over which society to join, we finally pledged."

"And then, Rat Day—the longest day of the year! Waking up at dawn, our day had been a mixture of crawling up steps, counting the holes in the tennis net, washing clothes, making beds, and being the lowest type of slave. But our spirits were lifted with the beautiful formal invitations. We were Rats no longer!"

"Our Society Banquet was most exciting. To this day I remember that luscious food."

"And do you remember," Peggy said, "that year Peace had her first visitation week ends? We co-operated with Dr. Presly and the student council by writing friendly letters of invitation to high school students. We went all out—from wiener roasts on the back campus to dances on Saturday nights."

"Yes, it was loads of fun. The whole year seemed so amazing to us. We didn't know what Peace would pull out of its pocket next. At Thanksgiving, the P. S. C. A. gave baskets of food to a beloved part of our Peace family, the faithful maids on the hall and in the laundry, and Irene and Mabel, who brought us those longed-for telephone calls. We felt more grateful as we ate our delicious dinner on Thanksgiving evening."

Peggy's face dropped as she said, "Our first college exams followed!"

"But they passed quickly, Peggy, and we soon began singing, 'Two more weeks 'till vacation!' Many of us had the privilege of being in the traditional Christmas Pageant and others participated in the Christmas Cantata. At Christmas Dinner that night we ate, sang, and looked forward to two weeks at home."

"Didn't the rest of the year fly? Spring Holidays ran right into our Junior-Senior, which we felt was a great success. The warmer weather brought May Day."

"It was about this time, Peggy, we elected you as president of our Student Body and Raye King to lead our class again the coming year."

"We watched the seniors graduate and I wondered how they felt, didn't you?"

"It was a sad but joyous occasion," I answered, "and it wasn't long before we were trying to fill their shoes!"

"No, those three months of vacation seemed like three days. But somehow coming back to Peace as a senior was quite different from coming for the first time as a freshman. We were glad to see our friends and we had never known such privileges. We were now Seniors!"

"Wasn't it the most fun rushing the new girls? Yet, the whole time, back deep in our minds, we were scheming for even meaner and more horrible consequences for them on Rat Day."

Peggy remarked about our fine Society Banquet, which was by no means a let down that year, and quickly reminded me, "And we witnessed Peace's first Thanksgiving week-end holidays—four days!"

"We came back to exams though, remember?"

"Yes, but then came the Christmas events with almost three glorious weeks at home!"

"When we returned, we had three visitation week ends, stunt night, and exams. These passed the time until Spring Holidays. And how about our Junior-Senior?"

"Wasn't it perfect!" answered Peggy. "The Juniors were grand to us, and we had a wonderful time!"

"We were so proud of our May Court that year. Barbara Wheeler was selected as our May Queen and Lynda Wilson, Maid of Honor."

"All too soon, we selected our graduation invitations, bought our white dresses and began practicing Class Day," Peggy recalled.

"Yes, and closed those two wonderful years with the Peace graduation exercise. Tears filled our eyes. We were proud to graduate from Peace and in our hearts this day we still keep memories of our President, Dean, Teachers, and the many friends we made in the days which were the happiest of our lives."

CLASS PROPHECY

An Open Letter to the Class of 1953:

Another oil well "came through" the other day; so I grabbed a few thousand dollars and decided to go to Europe. My first visit was to England. While I was in London, I happened to stop by the Tabard Inn—and there was Barbara Norris leading tours to Canterbury. Well, she always did say that she was going to work in Europe. I decided to sign up for one of Barbara's tours because we had a lot of talking to catch up on.

One of the first things Barbara asked me was if I had seen Adelaide Clark. At the time, Adelaide was over in the Swiss Alps teaching some of the natives to sing "She'll Be Coming 'Round the Mountain."

I asked Barbara if any of the other girls that we were in school with were abroad. She said that Joyce Wallace and Janet Stephenson had just returned to the States from Paris where they had been studying the Can-Can. They're teaching it at the Alma Mater now.

Also Lynda Wilson was in Paris—pardon, si'l vous plait, Mme. Lynda Wilson. She is in charge of design this year at the Folies Berger.

Frances Ager was expected to arrive soon. Her thoroughbreds had made millions at Louisville and now she was going to try for a few pounds at Churchill Downs.

Just then a deafening roar shook us and as we looked up there was a flying saucer. No, that wasn't a man from Mars in it—it was—Peggy Myers. Well, of course, I'd heard that she was running the Myers Transport Service advertising 45 minute non-stop flights from New York to London, but I'd never expected this. As Peggy leaned out to wave to us, someone else joined her. It was Libby Bruin. We later learned that Libby was on her way to Madrid to make Spanish records of "Just My Bill."

Barbara said that surely I had news of some of the girls—so I began.

Doris Crawford is running the baseball concession at the State Fair. That's the one where you throw baseballs at some "Guy's" head.

Sikes Blanton has invented a radio clock that instead of waking you up to music wakes you up with the aroma of coffee and provides a cup for you 20 minutes later when you get up.

Ann Parker has been elected to one of the highest executive jobs at Peace. She has complete and absolute charge of the Laundry Lists. Charlotte Howe is working at Peace, too. She divides her time between helping Rosa in the laundry and her job as assistant to Miss Hall.

Kay Ryals is playing first typewriter with the Boston Pops Orchestra this year.

Barbara Wheeler is taking good care of the future Dr. Harris. She's cooking over at the Sigma Nu house at Chapel Hill.

Raye King is professor of mathematics at Kuhns College.

Sally Wilson wears a true "angelic smile" now 'cause at last she's Mrs. "Em."

Some of the girls have done real well for themselves in the "book-making" business. Betsy Fort is in the Annual Publishing Business. She's with Edwards & Broughton & Fort. Joan Hester is Assistant to Under-Assistant's Assistant for Dr. Einstein's Assistant. They are under contract to the State of North Carolina to compile and edit a new algebra book. Mickey Halstead and Page Beale are writing a new history book to include the "Annette Purchase"—that's the new name for the Appalachian Mountains. Annette Agee simply had to have more land to raise more apples on. To take care of the demand, the A&P Stores are expanding facilities—that's the Agee & Patton Stores, of course. Helen still hasn't decided whether or not to open the store every day after lunch.

Eleanor Moose is handling all dates between Peace Girls and State boys. She's Secretary to the Chancellor over at State.

Muriel Weldon spends most of her time surveying her tobacco plantation in Daddy's Buick, except for a little time that she finds to spend with Hubby, Don Priece.

Haynes never got a car to take Mary Hope Phillips riding in, but I hear that they really enjoy their helicopter.

Susan Cork is Choir Director at Marshall College. She's trying to make enough money to keep Bill in school so that one day he can keep all the little Bills in school.

Business in the Men's Department of Hudson-Belk has really picked up. Barbara Beddingfield is manager now.

Jean Sandlin was Mrs. Revelle while we were at school. She's still happily married for 12 good reasons.

Barbara and I had just about caught up on conversation and were approaching the outskirts of Canterbury when we heard a familiar voice shouting, "Peanuts, popcorn, ice cold tea, hot roasted crumpets," and there was Fannette Gore. The three of us sat down and began to talk. Barbara and I really had a lot to tell Fannette and we kept thinking that she would think of something to say to us.

Well, there you are! If you are ever in Texas or Oklahoma, you can probably locate me picking up a few more thousand at one of my oil wells.

As ever,

EL NADAL.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the class of 1953, having in our possession certain valuable qualities and privileges, do, out of the kindness of our hearts, leave this, our last will and testament, that these qualities may be distributed among those needing them most.

ARTICLE I

Section 1

To the faculty we leave our thanks for the inspiration and guidance which they have given us, for without their planning and leadership, we could not have succeeded.

Section 2

To Dr. Pressly we leave unending gratitude for his interest in each of us, for he has done for us more than we could ever thank him for.

Section 3

To Miss Hall, for her direction over us which gives us only memories of happiness, we leave our love and our deepest thanks.

Section 4

To Miss Golden, our class sponsor, we leave our highest compliments for her direction over our class activities and her backing us at all times.

ARTICLE II

Section 1

To the juniors we leave our honored seats as seniors vacant. Along with these they may have our senior privileges; we hope that they may not be too overcome with our generosity. We sincerely hope that the best may be theirs as they fill those desired positions.

ARTICLE III

Section 1

I, Joan Hester, leave my phone calls from my brother to some lonely girl, Betty Reese Sugg in particular.

Section 2

I, Barbara Wheeler, leave my week ends in Chapel Hill to Frances Civils.

Section 3

I, Barbara Norris, leave my love for Raleigh to Sue Sims.

Section 4

I, Charlotte Howe, leave my "position" with Miss Hall to Dot McDonald.

Section 5

I, Kay Ryals, leave my numerous telephone numbers at State College to the girls who will check by my room and pick them up.

Section 6

I, Adelaide Clark, leave my shyness to the Preps.

Section 7

I, Helen Patton, leave warm-up suits for all the girls taking gym next year.

Section 8

I, Sally Wilson, leave my angel costume to the next "true" blonde.

Section 9

I, Doris Crawford, leave a new "soft" sofa to anyone who can get to it first.

Section 10

I, Page Beale, leave my seat in the library to Nancy Cameron.

Section 11

I, Muriel Weldon, leave my agreeable personality to Virginia Jones.

Section 12

I, Joyce Wallace, leave my crazy antics to the next occupants of my room and hope that council members don't live below them.

Section 13

I, Sikes Blanton, leave my versatile hair to Shirley Councilman.

Section 14

I, Susan Cork, leave my "solo" ability to Faye Jackson.

Section 15

I, Janet Stephenson, leave my love of breakfast to Patsy Pauls.

Section 16

I, Barbara Beddingfield, leave a special maid for the Day Students' room.

Section 17

I, Annette Agee, leave my vim and vigor to Sylvia Morrow.

Section 18

I, Frances Ager, leave my "horse collection" to decorate the mantle in the girls' living room.

Section 19

I, Oveda Halstead, leave free notebook paper to the girls taking history, so they won't go in debt.

Section 20

I, El Nadal, leave room 319 in perfect order to someone who will keep it that way.

Section 21

I, Lynda Wilson, leave my full mail box empty.

Section 22

I, Ann Parker, leave my Tuesday afternoon meetings to the next president of the Christian Association.

Section 23

I, Mary Hope Phillips, leave my typewriter to someone who will need it as much as I did.

Section 21

I, Raye King, leave my title of "Miss Peace" to some deserving soul.

Section 25

I, Eleanor Moose, leave my love for earrings to anyone who likes to wear them.

Section 26

I, Betsy Fort, leave my ability to get things done to Katie Hatchell.

Section 27

I, Libby Bruin, leave my enthusiasm for getting the "Sigs" on top to next year's president.

Section 28

As president of the student body, I, Peggy Myers, leave my responsibilities to someone who doesn't need to rest like I do.

Section 29

I, Fannette Gore, leave—for Carolina.

BOARDING STUDENT COUNCIL

PEGGY MYERS
President

The purpose of the Student Government at Peace is to maintain order and to promote the interests of the student body. The nine members of the council are elected by popular vote. Each council member takes a pledge of honor to uphold the ideals of Peace and to set an example of good citizenship. The council plans and sponsors many campus activities throughout the year.

Patton, Wheeler, Howe, Wilson, Myers, King, Parker, Gore, Bostic

DAY STUDENTS COUNCIL

Although the Day Students are not always on the campus, we feel that we are just as much a part of Peace as the Boarding Students. We try to uphold the morals, standards, and ideals of our Alma Mater at all times. The wonderful memories of our fellowship at Peace will linger in our thoughts always.

BARBARA BEDDINGFIELD
President

Halstead, Beale, Beddingfield, Cooper

LOTUS

BETSY FORT
Editor

EDITORIAL STAFF

It's spring again, and the Lotus Staff has worked hard through the long winter months to bring to you with the newness of the season a new LOTUS of 1953. We have tried to bring in its pages what we hope will be, in years to come, a musical picture of your past year at Peace.

To our wonderful advisor, Miss Oates, we wish to extend our love and "thanks" for pulling us through our trials and helping us to bring you this LOTUS.

ADELAIDE CLARK
Assistant Editor

LINDA WILSON
Art Editor

Wilson, Clark, Fort, Nadal, Becker, Phillips

1953

BUSINESS STAFF

Let's get annual ads today! During all kinds of weather—on warm days, cold days, cloudy days, rainy days—the business staff has visited business firms to solicit money for the support of our LOTUS.

We hope that as you read the LOTUS, you will not overlook the section of ads, for these ads show which business establishments are interested in the success of our annual.

To Miss Mary Kirkpatrick, who has devoted much of her time to advising us and going with us, we would like to express our appreciation.

P. S. C. A.

ANN PARKER
President

The religious activities on our campus are centered around the Peace Student Christian Association. Each girl in school is a member of the association which has a cabinet composed of four officers and eight chairmen, with Miss Lucy Steele as our faculty advisor.

The purpose of the Peace Student Christian Association is to try to make Christ a personal reality in the life of each Peace girl. Through our Morning Watch Services, Hall Prayers, and our Sunday Night Vesper Programs, we try to bring each girl to the expression of her faith and growing convictions.

Seated: Wilson, Clark, King, Parker, Steele, Howe, Core, Warren, Myers. Standing: Bullock, Agee, Anderson, Councilman.

DAUGHTERS AND GRANDDAUGHTERS CLUB

The members of the Daughters and Granddaughters Club are those girls whose mothers or grandmothers are alumnae of Peace. This club helps to carry on the traditions of those things which make a "Peace Girl" love Peace.

PHI THETA KAPPA

The purpose of the Phi Theta Kappa is to promote scholarship, leadership, and fellowship among students of junior colleges everywhere. We continually strive together to attain greater heights and uphold our motto of wisdom, aspiration, and purity.

ALPHA PI EPSILON

ALPHA—ACCURACY

PI—DEPENDABILITY

EPSILON—EFFICIENCY

BARBARA NORRIS
President

It is a distinctive honor to be a member of Alpha Pi Epsilon—the National Honorary Secretarial Society.

Membership in this society is restricted to students of superior scholarship, personality, and character.

The objective of Alpha Pi Epsilon is to professionalize the status of the college-trained secretary.

Howe, Norris

Myers, Halstead, King

OVEDA HALSTEAD
President

SIGMA PI ALPHA

The Sigma Pi Alpha is a national honorary language fraternity formed to stimulate an interest in and to acquire a more intimate knowledge of the language, people, and customs of other countries and to bring about a better understanding between these countries and our own. The Theta Chapter was established at Peace in 1939 to give recognition to those girls who have an unusual interest in languages and scholastic work.

I. R. C.

The International Relations Club, which is composed of Peace girls who are interested in current events and problems, meets once a month. Programs are presented at the meetings by students and outside speakers. Lectures, discussions, and debates are featured at the meetings.

The club seeks to promote an interest on the campus in World Affairs and to encourage study of world problems of our time.

MARY ROSS ANDERSON
President

ART CLUB

LIBBY BRIAN
President

The Elsie Robertson Art Club has been successful this year and has made many accomplishments. We have learned to appreciate beauty, and the club has done much to arouse our interest in learning. With our advisor, Miss Pugh, we have attended meetings and exhibits which have added much to our club life.

THE CHOIR

One of the most active organizations at Peace College is the Choir. Under the excellent direction of Miss Helen Tarver, it is a means for all who enjoy singing and music to meet together. The Choir presents Christmas and Spring Concerts, assists in Chapel services, sings for several Sunday morning services at the First Presbyterian Church, and provides musical programs for various outside organizations and churches. The members have enjoyed their work this year.

MARY ROSS ANDERSON
President

FANNETTE GORI

PAPYRUS CLUB

The Papyrus Club is a literary club for prospective writers. Not only is it for those with a talent for creative work but its main objective is to encourage writing by everyone. We have lots of fun working together to publish our newspaper, the Papyrus News, and we take great pride in presenting our work to the school.

PI THETA MU

Pi recipe: Take one well-rounded Peace girl; flavor with fun and good times; add a touch of genuineness; mix with humor! What have you? Why, a Pi, of course.

We have had lots of fun this year at our various activities . . . initiation . . . society banquet . . . bazaars . . . and society party. With the interest shown by all the members in our various enterprises, we are assured that Pi Theta Mu will always "stand for the highest Peace can strive for."

MARY CLYDE COOPER
President

SIGMA PHI KAPPA

LIBBY BRUIN
President

From beginning to end the Sigs were really on the ball this year. The dances, sports tournaments, banquets, and Rat Day, as well as our helpful projects—these we will keep and treasure in our hearts when we think of our days at Peace.

Whitener, Wilson, Bruin, Nadal, Crawford, Bostic

RHO DELTA CHI

The Rho's have really had fun this year, although we had stiff competition from the Sigs. We were thrilled with our Carnival during Rush Week, which brought us fifty-two loyal Rhos. We'll always remember our candlelight service on November 7, when our new girls took their vows and became members of the best—Rho Delta Chi!

BARRARA WHEELER
President

Patton, Johnson, Corbett, Ryals, Broetzman, Wallace, Whitener, Bostic, Jackson, Phillips, McEwen, McCain, Blanton, Peake, Gore.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

HELIX PATTON
President

The Athletic Association gives us relaxation from our academic work and is a time for fun and fellowship for everyone.

With the aid of our sponsor and friend, Miss Joyce Fowler, we are able to maintain our "Little Store" and to provide you with the treats that you long for.

May we all urge better sportsmanship within Peace, from the Overhead pass to the Backhand serve.

OUTSTANDING

BETSY FORT

As editor-in-chief of the '53 LOTUS, Betsy has done a remarkable piece of work. She is also a member of the Pi Theta Mu Society and has attained Scholastic Honors for two successive years. Her winning smile and vivacious personality will long be remembered by her classmates. The fact that Betsy is a Day Student does not handicap her campus activities, because she is the first to arrive in the morning and last to leave in the afternoon. Betsy is the perfect example of personality and intelligence; there is no doubt but that her future will be filled with success.

ELIZABETH BRUIN

She is known to Peace girls as "Libby," but she will not be remembered just for her name but for the sunshine she brings into each girl's life. Besides being on the Privileged Honor Roll, she is president of the Sigma Phi Kappa Society, is on the Annual Staff, and is Class Historian. She has also taken part in the Christmas Pageant and May Day program. These show her variety of abilities. It is Libby who gave the "Sigs" the push they needed, but she will not need a push to reach the top.

SENIORS

FANNETTE GORE

Outstanding is certainly the word for Fannette. Faithful in every duty, she was a member of the Peace Student Christian Association for two years. She served as president of the Papyrus Club, as a cheerleader for the Sigma Phi Kappa, and as a member of the Student Council, the Athletic Association, the Art Club, and the International Relations Club. She was a perfect actress for Stunt Night and also found time to participate in May Day. What a bright future an attractive Christian girl like Fannette has!

CHARLOTTE HOWE

Charlotte's abundance of vitality is the key to her winning personality. Truly an outstanding senior, she is vice-president of the P.S.C.A., treasurer of the Student Council, and a member of the Alpha Phi Epsilon Society, the Nominating Committee, and the Privileged Honor Roll. She has achieved scholastic honors, and has also found time to take part in Stunt Night and the Christmas Pageant. A capable girl like Charlotte will surely win success in anything she undertakes, and we are sure that she won't be long in reaching the top.

OUTSTANDING

PEGGY MYERS

An outstanding senior indeed is this vivacious little brunette. As president of the Student Council, Peggy has worked hard to lead us in a way that would uphold the high standards of Peace. Peggy is a P.H.R. and a member of the P.S.C.A. Cabinet. As a member of the Sigma Pi Alpha and Phi Theta Kappa Societies she shows that leadership is not the only quality she possesses. We are sure that the light she has cast at Peace will continue to be seen as she climbs to the top.

ANN PARKER

As president of the Peace Student Christian Association, Ann has been a wonderful influence on our religious life at Peace. A P.H.R. and a member of the I.R.C., she takes part in many school activities. She also finds time to participate in and carry through a superb Christmas Pageant. There is no question about her future for we know that the friendly, sweet smile and her willingness to work will put her well on the road to success.

SENIORS

LYNDA WILSON

Lynda's outstanding creative ability is of great value to her. She takes great interest in art work, and has done a fine job as Art Editor of The Lotus this year. Her dark attractiveness led her classmates to choose her to serve as Maid of Honor in the May Court. Lynda is president of the Daughters and Granddaughters Club, a member of the P.S.C.A. Cabinet and the P.H.R. Her reward for her kindness and helpfulness will surely be the goal she hopes to attain.

SALLY WILSON

"Still water runs deep" might well apply to Sally Wilson, who in her own quiet way goes about doing efficiently all the things that fall her lot—and more. She is secretary of the Student Council, a Privileged Honor Roll member, and a marshal. In addition she is a member of the Sigma Phi Kappa Society, has taken part in Stunt Night, and has served as an attendant in the May Court. The fact that Sally is most competent and reliable will lead her to succeed in whatever she undertakes.

ALMA MATER

In the heart of Carolina,
    'Neath the skies of blue,

Stands our noble Alma Mater,
    Glorious to view,

Classic in her broad proportions,
    Looks she proudly down—

Reared against the arch of heaven,
    With the stars for crown.

CHORUS

Lift the chorus, speed it onward;
    Let it never cease:

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater;
    Hail, all hail, to Peace!

SCHOOL OF NURSING

DURHAM, N. C.

Announces two new programs open to graduates of high schools. Students who have attended college will have their credits evaluated for advanced standing in the School of Nursing in the four-year course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Nursing, and will be able in some instances to finish the course in three years.

The basic entrance requirements are scholastic aptitude, aptitude for nursing, and integrity. The academic requirements are 16 units of high school credit.

Application forms and bulletins may be obtained from: Dean, School of Nursing, Hanes House, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina
